

SALES Superhero (m/f)

Sales Manager

Full time internship / position

FAZUA is a young, and international company based in Munich. We developed an eBike drive system which we call evation. It's the lightest and most compact drive system for eBikes in its category. Containing motor, electronics and battery in a single unit, its magic resides on the integrated design as well as on the possibility to be clicked in and out from the down tube at any time.

With huge bike manufacturers using evation, many say we created the future of eBiking. To successfully accomplish our mission and to spread the world with FAZUA products we urgently need to recruit very special new warriors for our team.

As our Sales Superhero, you will enable our OEM customers to be ahead of the others, as well as of course inspire new OEM's to be part of this next eBike generation. You will manage all stages involved in the sales process. From the first "knock-knock on the door", to sharing inspiration during the design and prototyping process, to proudly shipping the most precious good in the eBike market.

Our desired pioneers' skills:

- Bachelor or Master's Degree.
- Less than 3 years of experience or more than 30.
- A great sense of responsibility (and humor).
- Enthusiastic to torch passion.
- Teamwork guru.
- Passion for your work and aim for excellence.
- Strong organizational and planning skills.
- Sales knowledge.
- Willingness to shake hands around Europe.
- English and German are a must.

It wouldn't bother us too much if you would love bike riding

We offer:

- Long term contract opportunity.
- 100% flexible schedule.
- Tons of freedom and responsibility from the very beginning.
- The ideal opportunity to sink your teeth into a new, real and exciting project.
- Flat as a pancake employee hierarchy.
- Quite often backyard BBQs.
- Epic bootcamps where we enjoy riding our bikes and more outdoor activities.
- Fuel in the form of free drinks and snacks.
